

Life Is Not an Accident: A Memoir of Reinvention

This big-hearted memoir by the most promising professional basketball player of his generation details his rise to NBA stardom, the terrible accident that ended his career and plunged him into a life-altering depression, and how he ultimately found his way out of the darkness. Ten years ago, Jay Williams was at the beginning of a brilliant professional basketball career. The Chicago Bulls™ top draft pick™ and the second pick of the entire draft™ he had the great Michael Jordan™s locker. Then he ran his high-performance motorcycle head-on into a light pole, severely damaging himself and ending his career. In this intense, hard-hitting, and deeply profound memoir, Williams talks about the accident that transformed him. Sometimes, the memories are so fresh, he feels like he™ll never escape the past. Most days, he finds a quiet peace as a commentator on ESPN and as an entrepreneur who can only look back in astonishment at his younger self™ a kid who had it all, thought he was invincible, and lost everything ... only to gain new wisdom. Williams also shares behind the scenes details of life as an All-American. He tells it straight about the scandalous recruiting process and his decision to return to Duke and Coach K™ a man who taught him about accountability™ to finish his education. He also speaks out about corruption™ among coaches, administrators, players, and alumni™ and about his time in the NBA, introducing us to a dark underworld culture in the pros:

the gambling, drugs, and sex in every city, with players on every team.
