This is the UNCENSORED VersionIf you are into debating the existence of God, Jesus and religion in general then you found the right book. What happens when someone writes a book where they claim to speak with God; spend time in Purgatory and start debating people over the meaning of life? You are about to find out! There is comedy, love, action, twists and above all! A POINT! This is unlike anything you have ever read; I all but guarantee it. You may think you will know how it will end, which side a biased Author might take or that your mind is already made up itself! but trust me; you will be surprised. Jake Adams life isn't what he pictured it; he is living in a small apartment, single, out of school and miserable. He decides to try to get rich quick by writing a religious book to take advantage of a controversial and powerful issue in our country! and it works! Jake now has millions of dollars, freedom and a nice new high rise suite. He has everything he has ever wanted! until people start pestering him. People who believe in him, people who know he lied and people who hate him for corrupting the word of God. Jake now has to cope with his new reality and the issues one has to face when rising from nothingness to prominence, and with the problems of claiming you spoke to God. With plenty of controversy, humorous moments, a chance to reflect upon your own life and beliefs this book will challenge you until the end. Is it right to sell your soul for money?

Could you live with yourself after writing such a book? Are Americans really as divided as we all pretend to be? There are many questions; but also answers! I won't leave you hanging! I promise. Enjoy; think, rebel, dream, wonder, laugh, cry and above all! Live!
