

Motherhood Deferred: A Womans Journey

"On a beautiful spring day of 1988 I am driving down the Santa Monica freeway with a jar of my sixty-year-old husband's sperm in my purse en route to The Institute for Reproductive Research at the Hospital of the Good Samaritan. I am gingerly maneuvering through the heavy morning traffic with my secreted stash, careful not to swerve or speed lest I upset my cargo. This is what I have come to, what we have come to, after sixteen years of marriage: this detached, this clinical breeding. Oh my, how did I get here?"
