Becca Preston, bartender at Scoundrels, learned very early in life that menâ€”especially actorsâ€”were not to be trusted. Daughter of one of Hollywoodâ€™s hottest leading men, Becca spent most of her life dealing with her fatherâ€™s other roleâ€”king of infidelity. As a result, Becca has one hard and fast rule. Donâ€™t date actors. When Parker Banks met Bec, he was a struggling actor who worked as a waiter at Scoundrels to make ends meet. Though he wanted to move them out of the â€œjust friendsâ€• realm, Becca refused, claiming actors untrustworthy. After a catching a break on the Scoundrels stage, Parker's acting career skyrockets. However, while he's achieving all his goals professionally, there's still one dream he hasn't realized. Claiming Becca's heart. Under the Lights, Scoundrels Short Story, book 2 Just how hot does it get under the lights? Becca has been in love with Parker for years. But she's resigned herself to the fact her feelings can never be revealed. For one thing, he's a huge Hollywood movie star and a lifetime spent living with her famous father has taught her actors aren't exactly known for their fidelity. But even more problematic is Parker's dominance. Becca is used to calling the shots and Parker's dark, commanding presence alarms her, leaves her frightened, confused...breathless. Parker is most at ease onstage. So what better place than Scoundrels for him to capture his elusive beauty, Becca. Tonight, under the lights, he's determined to set her body on fire, bring her darkest fantasies to life and claim her heart once and for all. Over the Threshold, Scoundrels Short Stories, book 3 Does she dare say those three little letters "I Do" that could change her whole life? Becca is shocked when Hollywood megastar Parker Banks proposes to her on the Scoundrels stage. Though they've been friends for years, she's been very careful to never blur that line. After all, she only has one hard and fast rule "no actors. Her famous father's infidelities have taught her to keep a firm grip on her heart and she's never been tempted to break that vow. Until Parker walked back into Scoundrels. Under the bright lights, he breaks down her resistance, opens her eyes to what could be and makes her question her decision to avoid love with movie stars. And what happens when the performance becomes real? When sex becomes tied up with emotions? Should Becca cling to her safe, yet lonely life or take a chance and make that trip over the threshold?
