Editorial Reviews: International Praise for Quick Fix for Parents Living With Boomerang Kids „ Another gem in this brilliant series. Pat and Kay have a wonderfully straightforward approach to the big things in life, which somehow makes them far more manageable. They write with warmth, intelligence and heart. This ebook gives one an opportunity to consider your important relationships, including the most important, and often overlooked relationship with yourself. I love this book for its no waffle advice and I know I'll refer to it time and again. Andrea Steel "This is the second of the Quick Fix Series I have read and I love the direct, no "padding" approach. The book is full of practical ideas that most people could use in their relationships. I particularly liked: The sensibly selfish activity of getting to like yourself - it's so easy to forget this when relationships are strained. Having a practical tool like the values exercise to work on with my husband. The chapter on physical relationship is very important. It's so easy to feel bad about your body as the years go by, even forgetting that your partner's body is ageing too. There are great ideas here to get the hormones active again!" Patricia McBride "Great read with good advice." Sharon Scott
