Have you ever said, Is this all there is to life? or Why do bad things happen to me and not to others? If you have, this book was written for you. It takes you on a sacred journey of two siblings with very different life experiences. One learns life's truths through hard work and good fortune; the other, on the brink of suicide, realizes a bond with an entity that takes her to a new level of spiritual understanding that ultimately can change the way mankind views the world. This book is guaranteed to set you on your own journey of discovery and truth.
