

Journal of a Midlife Crisis (Elastic Waistbands Series Book 1)

This is an opportunity for you to laugh at one persons midlife misadventures so that yours dont seem so bad. It includes serious, important-sounding chapters like: Shorter Sight and Longer Arms Mom is a Four-Letter Word Falling for Fun and Sympathy If I Could Do That, I Wouldnt Need a Health Club Mr. Communication and Miscommunication Hair Today, Gone Tomorrow Is this book for you? Answer these questions: Have you ever been stranded on the second floor of a stairmaster? When a form asks for your hair color, do you write Number 186? Do you find yourself being nice to people just to be sure theres a crowd at your funeral? Instead of mopping, do you spill food and let the dog clean the floor? Have you ever left the room during a club meeting and come back to find that you were voted president? Have you ever gotten angry at someone for something they did in your dream? If you took the time to read the questions, this book is for you.
