

KaChing: How to Make Your Fortune in Mid-life

If you want to make your fortune in mid-life, this book is an invaluable, entertaining primer - and a great read. Barbie Hall Gummin began her career building a sandwich board advertising company that paid her way through college. Passionate about health and fitness Barbie then moved to Colorado and started a highly successful promotions company that she sold in 2006 and invested her millions in real estate and stocks. Then came the Great Recession and Barbie lost her entire nest egg and was devastated. But she picked herself up and got back into the game. This is Barbies story, which she tells as she is remaking her fortune. Read along as she gives you the tips, hits the inevitable bumps, and achieves success - again.
