

The Muharram Sermons

A lively compilation of lectures during the sacred month of Muharram in commemoration of the eternal sacrifice and the powerful movement of Imam Hussain (a) in the Battle of Ashura in Karbala. The author uses contemporary discussions to defend the Holy Prophet Muhammad (s) and reveal the Spirituality of Imam Hussain (a). A fascinating discourse about the Islamic handshake is undertaken and he probes into a detailed study of Salah. The roles and influences of women and hijab will engage the reader with its captivating content and the subject of marriage is taken on in an enlightening manner. A historic discussion on the Hijra of the Holy Prophet is followed by an analytical dispelling of misconceptions regarding Ashura.
