

Redeemed: The Serendipitous Curse, Book Three

Solomon is on a desperate quest to free his beloved, Desiree, from her frigid prison in the darkest reaches of the Outerworld. Armed with his crystal shard of light, the sliver of black mirror that the witch Madeline Jacobs pulled Desiree through, and the key to a fabled unholy shrine in this world of darkness, Solomon departs modern day Savannah on his final journey. Together, the star-crossed lovers escape Madeline's minions through frozen hells to another world, in some ways even more terrible: Savannah, Georgia during the American Civil War. The locals don't take kindly to the persimmon-haired beauty, Desiree. Her comely appearance marks her as a witch, and her foolish confidence as a history major runs afoul of the stark reality of the harsh conditions her African-American ancestors faced in slavery. Meanwhile, the demon Amon is determined to take over Solomon's entire being in order to possess Desiree - a battle Solomon isn't sure he can win. Time is running out, and Solomon must make the ultimate sacrifice to protect those he loves!
