

AGNOSTICISM IN THE BIBLES OWN WORDS

Agnosticism is the philosophical theory of limitation of knowledge. Applied to theology, it follows that any deity or other religious claims are unknown and unknowable because the source of such knowledge is, for Christians, the Bible - a book considered by many as Gods words - yet full of contradictions. Therefore, in this e-book, the authors methodology involves biblical conflicting passages on which he bases his conclusion. For example, he compares/contrasts two or more scriptural passages such as, And when I am lifted up from earth, I will draw all men to myself, (John 12:53) with its opposite, And those (the cursed) will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life. (Matthew 25:46). Both allegedly attributed to Christ himself. So the question remains: Will all mankind be saved or just part of it? Consequently, based on these contradictions, the contents of the Bibles New Testament justified the creation of three major Christian religions: Roman Catholicism, Lutheranism and Calvinism/Presbyterianism (the above example of conflicting biblical passages regarding salvation lead to Universalism, that has never been a major independent denomination, and it is considered a heresy by all major Christian religions). The author affirms that this make a strong case for agnosticism in the Bibles own words, as the existence of three different religions, based on the same revelation - the Bible - cannot be right, and might indicate that all three are wrong!
