Intimacy as a ceremony is meant to be fun and exciting and it is with the 3Nite Mini-Course The Recaptured Love series was born out of a dedication to help others, who like myself, have found themselves trying to navigate the often bumpy road of fear and uncertainty that results from the affects of prostate cancer on our intimacy and sexuality. I share honestly and unabashedly, with a no-holds-barred approach, my experiences with Intimacyâ€™Sex and Prostate Cancer. Beginning in November of 2000 Kevin Alexzander started a 15 year personal self-transformation that included divorce, diagnosis of advance stage prostate cancer, chemo, hormones, radical prostatectomy, radiation treatments, loss of his mother, home and career and the ability to achieve a natural erection due to prostate cancer treatments, along with incontinence. Kevin knows what it feels like to put up walls to intimacy and reexamine what it means to be a man. He struggled early in this new journey mentally and emotionally with reinventing his masculine essence with the physical changes he was experiencing in Intimacy with Prostate Cancer. Thanks to his lifelong study of intimacy and sexuality, and intense training, dialog and coaching over the past 15 years in intimacy, sexuality and mens work, combined with the principles of 30 years of martial arts training, Kevin was able to transform his relationship in Intimacy with Prostate Cancer and help other men, women and couples change their relationship in Intimacy with Prostate Cancer.

Kevin's mission is to give you the clarity, courage and commitment you need to succeed at-Intimacy with Prostate Cancer. Prior to his current journey with prostate cancer, Kevin has been an award-winning small business management consultant; aide to a US Senator; Mens work facilitator; race car driver; martial arts instructor; photographer; producer, director, actor; and a graduate of the Harvard University, Kennedy School of Government, Community Builder Fellows Program. Kevin's media experience includes keynotes, workshop facilitation, radio and TV interviews, videos, and articles for national publications. Kevin is also an author of three new books on being a Man, personal transformation, accountability and success.
